The Daisy Recruitment Award

Volunteers are eligible to receive The Daisy Recruitment Award when they recruit an adult as a Girl Scout leader, co-leader, or assistant leader.

Requirements:

1. Recruit an adult as a Girl Scout leader, co-leader, or assistant leader.
2. The newly recruited adult attends orientation and basic leadership training.
3. The newly recruited adult registers with GSUSA.

Recognition:

The volunteer who recruits adults will receive the appropriate Daisy pin, based on the scale listed below. Once the white Daisy pin is awarded, it can be exchanged for a yellow Daisy or any other appropriate Daisy pin, based on the number of adults recruited in leadership positions.

- * 1st recruit - white Daisy pin
- * 5th recruit - yellow Daisy pin
- * 10th recruit - blue Daisy pin
- * 15th recruit - silver Daisy pin
- * 20th recruit - gold Daisy pin

Applications for recognition are submitted to the Jacksonville Service Center.
